GENNIE NEVINSON BENEFIT NIGHT

Peter Engebretsen & Gennie Nevinson

The Yarramalong theme park Amazement will play host on Saturday, 17th September to some of Australia's finest musicians when they gather from 4pm to perform at a benefit concert for well known actress Gennie Nevinson, following the sudden death recently of her husband Peter Engebretsen, who was creator and co-designer of the couple's unique Central Coast attraction.

Compered by Graham Keating, the concert will run into the evening and will include such esteemed musicians as Parris Macleod, Christian Marsh, Edu Valk, the Steve Maynard Blues Quartet, Libby Keating, Harriet Whisky Club and numerous others who are pooling their talents to come to the assistance of Gennie, who is now struggling single-handed to maintain the business. Amazement first became popular for its Christmas tree plantations and is now a landmark noted for its variety of beautiful mazes, children's features and function centre.

A highlight of the event will be the dedication to Peter of a planned new maze, designed by Central Coast artist Mike Worral.

Amazement is located at 170 Yarramalong Rd approximately 1 kilometre past the intersection with Old Maitland Rd at Woodbury Park. Admission is just $25 (kids under 15 $10) and includes plenty of delicious snack food and the venue is under cover in the big barn. Enquiries 4353 9900. Donations for a raffle & chocolate wheel prizes, please call 4356 1127.

Put the date straight into your diary - this is an event not to be missed.
